Our new website is live

The Waitaha Enabling Good Lives Regional Leadership Group has made a website.

Waitaha Enabling Good Lives Regional Leadership Group is also called WRLG for short.

Here regional means an area of the country like Waitaha.

Waitaha is also called Canterbury.

Here leadership means the group that:

- leads change
- and
- the changes follow what Enabling Good Lives says.

We are a team of:

- disabled people
- whānau / families of disabled people
- allies / supporters of disabled people
- providers of services to disabled people.

We are working towards disabled people and their whānau / families to have more:

- choice over their own lives
- control over their own lives.

We would love for you to check out: our new website.

It is easy to use.

When you visit our website you will find out:

- who we are
- what we do
- how we do it.

Find out more at our website:

<https://www.wrlg.org>

You can watch our video at this website:

<https://www.wrlg.org>

Our video:

- has captions which are words on the screen
- is also in New Zealand Sign Language.

We have also written some of our information in:

- Easy Read
- Plain Language.

Plain Language is:

- writing information in a way that more people understand
- using words people know.

This supports more people to be able to understand our information.
